

The Japanese Journal of Education and Welfare on Snoezelen

Vol. 7 March 2024

Preface

Recommended submission to the Japanese Journal of Education and Welfare on Snoezelenz
Miki Niioka 1

Special Contributions (International Papers)

Snoezelen-Multisensory Environment : definition, aims and basic principles. Ad Verheul 3
Snoezelen/Multisensory Environments : A simple game of give and take Paul Pagliano 11
Facilitating Communication using the "Crdl".
Study on (n=57) interventions with people having a dementia or cognitive disability.
Effectiveness also in combination Crdl and Snoezelen David Grupe 18

Special Contributions

The past and future of Snoezelen
—The History of the Japan Snoezelen Association— Atsushi Ota 36

Original Article

Effects and challenges of Snoezelen (MSE) practice for the elderly with dementia in special nursing homes :
from the perspective of two occupational therapists Miki Niioka, Tatsuo Hatta 42
Relevance of Stimuli Across Different Modalities in Snoezelen
—A Study on Olfactory and Visual Stimulation— Midori Hashimoto, Yutaka Kanazawa 56

Reference Articles

Research on the construction of a Snoezelen certification course (special support) Yasuhiro Mine 65

Practical Report

The necessity and appeal of Snoezelen education in special needs schools for intellectual disabilities
Karasawa Tooru 76
Utilization of Snoezelen room in special needs school
—Achievements and challenges of permanently establishing a Snoezelen room as a special classroom—
Seki Yosuke 83
Practicing Snoezelen activities for children with severe and multiple disabilities Toshio Todokoro 93
The practice of handmade Snoezelen in facilities for people with disabilities
—Creation of the environment and the equipment and instruments to be used— Hikaru Aoki 99

Local Reports

A New initiative in child development support / after-school day care Mika Shiino 106

Student Article

Research on bubble tube linked to heartbeat. Haru Matsui 111

Japanese Congress Report for Snoezelen Symposium

Nationwide survey research on Snoezelen lessons for children with severe multiple disabilities (in special school for children with physical disabilities) Nationwide survey on Snoezelen lessons for children with severe multiple disabilities (in special school for children with physical disabilities) in the Corona pandemic Nationwide survey research on teaching method of Jiritsu Katsudo for children with severe multiple disabilities (in special school for children with physical disabilities) Hiroshi Anezaki 117

Submission guidelines/ Style sheet/ Code of ethical practice Article Recruitment Guidance of The Bulletin Vol.8